MBBS in Georgia | Admission Process, Eligibility & Fee Structure

MBBS in Georgia is a prominent choice for students seeking to study medicine abroad. Georgia offers an impeccable learning environment, international standards of curriculum and teaching, and well-equipped infrastructure, making it a popular destination for aspiring medical professionals.

MBBS in Georgia Highlights

- Degree: MD (Equivalent to MBBS in India)
- Duration: 6 Years
- Eligibility: NEET Qualified, 50% in PCB
- Medium of Instruction: English
- Fees: 35 Lakhs to 50 Lakhs INR
- Intakes: September
- Recognition: NMC, WHO, FAIMER, Ministry of Education Georgia

About Georgia

- Capital: Tbilisi
- Currency: Georgian Lari (1 Georgian Lari = 32.35 INR)
- Population: 3,967,282
- Language: Georgian, Abkhazian
- Religion: Christianity, Islam, others
- Area: 69,700 Square Kilometers

Why Study MBBS in Georgia?

- Globally Recognized Education System
- Inexpensive Tuition Fees
- English Medium Instruction
- Fair Passing Rate of FMGE
- Internationally Recognized Medical Institutes
- Degree Recognized in India
- Sufficient Availability of Indian Food
- No Requirement of IELTS/TOEFL
- International Exposure

Fee Structure

The cost of MBBS in Georgia includes tuition fees, accommodation, and other charges. Below are the details for specific universities:

College Name	Tuition Fees (USD)	Accommodation (USD)	Other Charges (USD)	Total (USD)
SEU Georgian National University	5,500/year	1,500/year	1,000 (1st year)	35,000
European University Georgia	5,500/year	1,500/year	1,000 (1st year)	35,000
University of Georgia	6,000/year	1,500/year	1,000 (1st year)	34,500
Alte University	5,500/year	1,500/year	1,000 (1st year)	35,000
Batumi International University	4,800/year	1,500/year	1,000 (1st year)	31,500
Avicenna Batumi Medical University	4,000/year	1,500/year	1,000 (1st year)	30,000

Medical Courses Offered in Georgia

- General Medicine
- Nursing
- Dentistry
- Pharmacy

MBBS in Georgia Eligibility

- Age Limit: Minimum 17 years by December 31 of the admission year
- Exam: Mandatory NEET Qualified
- Educational Qualification: Minimum 50% in 12th board exams in Physics, Chemistry, and Biology (40% for reserved categories)

MBBS in Georgia Admission Process

1. Select University: Choose your preferred university.
2. Contact University: Reach out to official authorities for details.
3. Registration: Fill out the application form.
4. Submit Documents: Submit required documents.
5. Application Fee: Pay the application fee.

Required Documents

- 10th Marksheet
- 12th Marksheet
- NEET Scorecard
- Original Passport (with 18 months validity)

- Birth Certificate
- Passport Size Photo (Visa Format)
- Medical Report
- Bank Statement

MCI-Approved Medical Colleges in Georgia for Indian Students

- SEU Georgian National University
- European University Georgia
- University of Georgia
- Alte University
- Batumi International University
- Avicenna Batumi Medical University

Facilities for Indian Students in Georgia

- Hostels: Fully furnished rooms with essential amenities.
- Food: Availability of Indian food and cooking facilities.
- Safety: No ragging policy and high security.
- Common Facilities: Air-conditioned rooms, internet, sports facilities, gyms, libraries, etc.

FAQs

Q: Can students work part-time while studying MBBS in Georgia? A: Yes, students can work part-time to meet their daily expenses.

Q: Are there scholarships available for MBBS in Georgia? A: Yes, scholarships are available for deserving candidates.

Q: Is an MBBS degree from Georgia recognized in India? A: Yes, it is recognized and accredited by WHO, NMC, and FAIMER. Graduates can take the FMGE or NEXT exam to practice in India.

Q: Is Georgia a safe country for students? A: Yes, Georgia is considered very safe, with low crime rates making it a secure choice for international students.